

GSHA CONFERENCE SPONSOR:

Gillman & Soame are the pre-eminent, brand leading school photographers operating in the UK and overseas.

In existence since 1856

We work with the country's top schools and are proud to count many leading grammar schools as customers.

We take more large Complete School groups than any other company in the UK.

British Design Council award winning staging.

Method statement / risk assessment / public liability insurance / data protection policy all in place.

We offer the complete photographic service to schools nationwide.

- School Name and crest on school portraits. Parents are really proud of the fact that their children go to your school so we offer a very special product that includes your school name. This is unique to Gillman & Soame. We also offer the normal portraiture options as standard to all customers.
- Groups of up to 1800 staff and pupils. Complete School and House Groups. Not just letter box format but featuring the school building too if desired. Taken as one photograph not stitched together!
- Sports Groups. As part of a planned programme of photography we will undertake seasonal Sports Group photography
- Imagebank. A unique service whereby your images are archived and stored by Gillman & Soame off your servers thereby freeing up valuable space.
- SIMS / ISAMS compatible. Names to Faces disc. Enables images to be automatically dropped into your pupil database system. Compatible with other systems too.
- Creative services. Photography and video for websites and brochures a speciality.
- Variety of ordering methods. Online / phone / post / into school

Gillman & Soame. One point of contact. Everything under one roof!
