

National Conference for Sixth Form Leaders in Grammar Schools

24 & 25 March 2025

Arrive 5.30pm Monday, depart 2.30pm Tuesday

Wycombe High School and Holiday Inn Hotel, High Wycombe

With a schedule to allow sixth form leaders from across the country to attend while only being absent from school for only one day, the conference programme is designed to help senior and middle leaders share their practice and address key current issues in the field of Post-16 education.

Cost: £295 including opening session, conference dinner and accommodation on Monday evening and a programme based at Wycombe High School on Tuesday (non-residential option is available for local delegates on request for £200)

Sessions include:

Outstanding Sixth Form provision: how to embody 'demanding curriculum goals' and ensure the 'impact of the taught curriculum is strong'
Catherine Priggs (Leadership Consultant)

University Admissions – the current and future landscape
James Seymour (Director of Marketing and Student Recruitment, University of Northampton)

The whole Sixth Former: Personal Development and the A-Level Mindset
George Barrett (Ermysted's Grammar School)

Character Development in Sixth Forms
Dan Colquhoun (Dr Challoner's Grammar School)

Elevating standards and recalibrating culture: a 'marginal gains' driven approach to Sixth Form leadership
Dan Rouse (Townley Grammar School)

Places can be booked at www.gsha.org.uk